

Jesus - the man who changed lives

RE
Year 3
Summer Term

Overview

During this unit, pupils will deepen their insight into the impact Jesus had on the lives of people he came into contact with and those throughout history and in modern times who feel inspired by him. They will explore how Jesus changed the lives of Matthew, Zacchaeus and the rich young ruler in the Gospels. They will also look at the lives of saints down the ages. Pupils will research the stories of Christians working for charities today. Their lives have been changed by Jesus and they are now working to change the lives of others.
